Jesus Taught a Samaritan Woman

JOHN 4:1-42

Jesus was tired from a long walk through Samaria. He sat down by Jacob's well while His disciples went into the town to buy food.

Usually, all the women came to get water in the morning. Even though it was late in the day, one woman came alone to get water. "Give Me a drink," Jesus said.

The woman asked, "Why are You asking me for a drink?" The woman knew that Jesus was a Jew and that Jews usually did not talk to Samaritans. Jesus told her that if she knew who was speaking to her, she would ask Him for a drink. He told her that He had living water!

The woman spoke again. "You don't even have a bucket to get water. Where will You get this living water?"

Jesus explained, "Everyone who drinks water from this well will get thirsty again, but the kind of water I can give will keep you from getting thirsty again." Jesus was speaking about eternal life forever with God.

The woman said, "I want this living water. I can tell that You are a prophet."

Jesus explained that God wants people to worship Him. The woman said, "I know that the Messiah is coming."

Jesus told her that He was the Messiah. At that point, the woman left her water jar and ran to the town. She told the townsmen, "Come. See the man. Could He be the Messiah?" So the men went out to see Jesus.

Many Samaritans from the town believed in Jesus because of what the woman told them. They came to see Jesus and asked Him to stay with them. He stayed two days, and later, the people said they now believed Jesus was the Savior because they heard Him for themselves.
