People Praise Jesus

LUKE 19:28-40; JOHN 12:12-18

Jesus was traveling with His disciples to Jerusalem. As He came to the Mount of Olives outside a village called Bethany, He sent two disciples ahead of Him. “As you enter the village,” Jesus said, “you will find a young donkey tied there. No one has ever ridden it. Untie it and bring it to Me. If anyone asks what you are doing, say, ‘The Lord needs it.’”

The disciples found the donkey. When the owners asked why they untied it, the disciples explained, “The Lord needs it.” They led the donkey to Jesus, threw their robes on its back, and helped Jesus get on.

In Old Testament times a prophet had written Don't be afraid! Your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt. That prophecy came true as the donkey carried Jesus toward Jerusalem.

People took palm branches and went out to meet Jesus. They spread their robes on the road where He was riding and shouted, “Hosanna! (Save us!)” The people praised God for all the miracles Jesus had done and loudly said: “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven! Glory in the highest heaven!”

Some of the Pharisees (religious leaders) in the crowd were upset by what was happening. They told Jesus to tell the disciples to stop shouting.

Jesus told the Pharisees, “Even if the people were silent, the stones would cry out!”

Jesus' disciples did not understand what was happening at first. Later, after Jesus rose from the dead, they remembered and understood what had happened that day.
